

Community

Starting your own business

Career Development Center photo

Earlier this spring, Jewish Family & Children's Service's Career Development Center invited the Small Business Administration Pittsburgh District Office to present a free workshop on starting your own business. SBA district director Carl B. Knoblock, standing, led attendees, including Susan T. Neft and Stefan Krawczynski in several exercises. The workshops are free and open to the public, but attendees must register online in advance.

A

C

L

O