

METRO

Briefly

Continued from page 3.

Family Wellness Fair, will be held Sunday, Jan. 29, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., at the JCC in Squirrel Hill.

The program will include: group exercise classes, new cardio equipment, family gym, youth and family wellness fair, boys hip-hop, adult hip-hop, children's hip-hop, and special camp discounts

Visit JCCPGH.org or call 412-521-8010 for more information.

The Pittsburgh Area Jewish Committee's Christian-Jewish Dialogue will meet Thursday, Feb. 2, at noon at Congregation Beth Shalom, 5915 Beacon St. The topic will be "Immigration," presented by Rabbi Paul Tuchman and Father Dan Valentine. Jewish and Christian texts (Leviticus 19:33-34; Hebrews 13:2) will be studied.

The monthly conveners are Rabbi James Gibson, Rev. Cynthia Bronson-Sweigert, Valentine and Rabbi Michael Werbow. The program is free to the public. Contact the PAJC office at 412-605-0816 or at pajc@pajc.net for more information.

Jewish Family & Children's Service's Career Development Center will offer job seekers 15 workshops in February. Some of the workshops include: Job Search Strategies, Feb. 1; Marcellus Shale Presentation and Q&A, Feb. 7; The Art of Networking, Feb. 13; and Transitioning to Success, Feb. 28. Monthly LinkedIn for Beginners, LinkedIn Advanced, AARP WorkSearch 40+, Networking Club and Job Seeker Support group workshops will be held also.

Visit careerdevelopmentcenter.org to register. Call the Career Development Center at 412-422-5627 for more information.

Pittsburgh Conference of Jewish Women's Organizations and Beth Shalom Sisterhood will hold an afternoon game party at Congregation Beth Shalom, 5915 Beacon St., Monday, Feb. 6, at 12:30 p.m. Women from any Jewish organization or Sisterhood are invited for an afternoon of fun and friendship. Bring your friends and your favorite games. There is a charge. R.S.V.P. to Lynne Jacobson at 412-521-8288 or lynnej43@verizon.net; or Ruth Garfinkel at 412-687-3077, ruthgarfinkel@aol.com. Contact Dena Chottiner at chottiner102@comcast.net or call 412-672-3979.

Congregation Beth Shalom and Rodef Shalom Sisterhood are holding a winter film festival open to the community. Sunday, Jan. 29, the comedy film "Nora's Will" will be screened at 7 p.m. in Congregation Beth Shalom's Samuel and Minnie Hyman Ballroom, 5915 Beacon St.

There is no charge but there is a suggested fee. Light refreshments will be served.

Call 412-421-2288 for more information.

Join fellow members of the
GREATER PITTSBURGH
 AIPAC DELEGATION for the three most important days affecting
ISRAEL'S FUTURE!

THE 2012
AIPAC POLICY CONFERENCE